NEW YORK WRANGLE

Banner of Conservatism Opposed to Roosevelt Dictum.

BARNES IS SPOKESMAN

"Populistic" Ideas Opposed by Old Guard Republicans.

DEFIANCE IS UNCOMPROMISING

N. O. M. Tells of Issues Raised in Empire State—Roosevelt Expected to Raise Cry of Reaction.

Special From a Staff Correspondent.

NEW YORK, July 6.—The biggest sensation of the political midsummer season has developed as result of a series of conferences among republican leaders in this city yesterday and last night, and the defiant challenge of the "Old Guard" republicans to the new Hughes-Taft-Roosevelt combination for reform.

Col. Roosevelt has been served with a letter setting forth the attitude of the Old Guard in vigorous terms. William Loeb has been visited in person and flatly told that his aspirations for the gubernatorial nomination will not be indulged by his home county of Albany.

The letter to Col. Roosevelt was written by William Barnes, Jr., the young cock of the north, who figured prominently in the defeat of the direct nomination plan last week. He is the republican boss of Albany county, editor of the Albany Journal and a power in the state.

In his communication to Col. Roosevelt, as the active head of the proposed new political party in this state, Barnes spoke for his colleagues and co-workers, Speaker Wadsworth and the group of up-state leaders who defied the "Old Guard" direct nomination project.

The contents of Barnes and his fellows are:

Attitude of Old Guard.

That the republican party in New York must return to its landmarks of conservatism, and cease trifling with semi-populistic theories, such as the Cobb direct primary bill is claimed to be.

That La Folletteism has no place in republicanism in New York, and the republican party must make up its mind to stand for conservatism or to be settled definitely at the coming state convention, in the platform to be adopted, and a platform of conservatism.

Mr. Barnes in his letter to Col. Roosevelt referred more particularly to the proposal of Col. Roosevelt of the Cobb bill. In general terms he included a reference to alleged populist theories as against old-time republicanism, and made it clear where his group of republicans stood.

Petty Bosses in League.

The significance of this open defiance of the Hughes-Taft-Roosevelt combination on the primary reform project is that it means coalition of the petty bosses up-state on a platform of conservatism against progressiveness. Once this fact is demonstrated, the progressiveness of the party will be in jeopardy, and the party will be in jeopardy.

It is prophesied by some republicans here that Col. Roosevelt will be the victim of a fight on the direct nomination bill, but will shift the issue, and put Barnes and his group in a position of defensive in a discussion of progressiveness against conservatism. They are looking for Col. Roosevelt to lead in a ringing attack upon the Old Guard and the reactionaries, and counting on a call for a rally to the progressive cause.

Gov. Hughes has been trying ever since he came into power, to lead his party away from the path followed by the old guard, which is pleased to call itself conservative. Naturally he fought most strenuously the spreading fight that has been progressing in national politics.

There is a clear cut issue between them and the leaders of the old guard, and the fight on the direct nomination bill will have a result.

Points Exaggerated Picture.

He paints the reverse of the picture in exaggerated colors, for it is a far cry from the progressiveness of the state to the conservatism of La Follette. However, the party is drifting. He views with alarm.

His appeal to conservatism is directed mainly to the financial and corporation interests. It is intended to notify them that the fight on the direct nomination bill is a fight between the radical and the conservative elements of the republican party.

He and his friends want to know what the republican party of this state stands for. Of course it is to stand for ultra conservatism.

Unquestionably, republicans throughout the country will have sorrow upon this spectacle of reactionary effort in the Empire state. At a time when the spirit of progressiveness is spreading among the republicans west of Hoboken, even permitting New Jersey, the Barnes movement will strike a sharp note.

Barnes Looks for Reaction.

But I have reason to know that he does not believe in this light. He and his friends claim that reaction is coming against the spread of radicalism in the party throughout the country. They think that the New York republicans can afford to take the advance step.

They have the tendency to take issue with Hughes and Roosevelt in their estimate of popular sentiment. We will see how it works out.

William Loeb has been much cast down at the saucy snail administered his gubernatorial prospects by the boss of Albany county, who reminded him that no republican ever got the nomination for governor without the support of his county.

In the roll call Albany county leads off. The tall figure of William Loeb is casting its vote for some other than Loeb would have a discouraging effect upon the Loeb boom.

However, Loeb's friends are telling him to cheer up, that this was merely a rebuke for his partnership against Barnes in the direct nomination contest. They say that William Barnes will listen to the voice of reason when it comes to the final kicking in state convention.

STICKS TO SINKING SHIP

Captain Picked Up by Waiting Crew in Small Boat.

NEW YORK, July 6.—Four men, the captain and crew of the two-masted schooner Garfield White, which sank last evening seven miles east of the Ambrose channel lightship, were rescued today by the men of the Rockaway Beach life-saving station.

The four men, who had drifted about all night in a small boat, were so exhausted that they had to be carried up the beach. They were soon put in shape by physicians' attentions.

Capt. G. G. Morrison of the schooner said that his vessel sprung a leak midway shortly after sailing yesterday from Perth Amboy for Nova Scotia, with 175 tons of coal. The pumps failed to keep up with the influx and the vessel began to settle.

The two sailors and the cabin boy, comprising the entire crew of the schooner, put off in the ship's boat and stood by, Capt. Morrison stuck to his craft to the last.

When the schooner's stern plunged downward the captain jumped overboard. The boat picked him up.

The Garfield White hailed from Parsboro, Nova Scotia.

AMERICAN CITIZENSHIP SOUGHT BY THREE NUNS

Sisters of Perpetual Adoration Apply to Courts—One Dutch and Two Italian.

That the closed convent gate does not shut out the love of liberty, and that the desire for American citizenship may penetrate even the cloistered cell, is shown by the application for naturalization filed today by three sisters of the community of the Perpetual Adoration, located on V street between 14th and 15th streets.

The applicants are: Marie Kamp, born in Amsterdam, Holland; Rachella Mares, who first saw the light in Sorrento, Italy, and Severina Di Giovanni, a native of Piana del Greco, Sicily. The religious names of the would-be citizens do not appear in the applications.

EXCHANGE OF VIEWS

United States and Mexico in Accord as to Nicaragua.

RUMORS HEARD OF PLOT

Americans Said to Foster a Plan for New Republic.

CONSUL MOFFATT IS ACCUSED

Refugees Say Conference at Bluefields Decided on Government With Estrada as Head.

An exchange of views on the Nicaraguan situation between the governments of the United States and Mexico has recently taken place, according to a statement made today at the State Department, and showed on the part of both governments an earnest desire to see the speedy determination of the war in Nicaragua. The communications are described as most cordial and inspired by the best of friendly relations.

The State Department officials deny any knowledge of the formation of an anti-American propaganda in Central American countries and of the appeal of those countries to Mexico and Argentina to protect them from the alleged aggressions of the United States.

The fact that a financial agent of the Honduran government is now in the United States negotiating a large loan with New York bankers, which will come before the State Department for sanction before being put into execution, is cited by the officials here as proof of the friendly relations and mutual interests of those two governments. The demonstration of students in Salvador some time ago is officially interpreted here as a mere schoolboy prank.

No Change in Policy.

It is officially declared that there is to be no change in the policy of the United States toward Nicaragua, under which Madriz and Estrada are regarded simply as two hostile political factions. It is admitted, however, that evidence is accumulating that Madriz really represents the interests of Zelaya, the deposed president, and that the United States has taken an unalterable stand against Zelaya in all its phases.

SAFE CRACKERS CHASED

RUNNING FIGHT WITH POLICE IN HARLEM STREETS.

One Fugitive Captured on the Stairway of Elevated Railway Station After Desperate Resistance.

NEW YORK, July 6.—After a running fight with safe crackers and police in Harlem today, in which thirty shots were exchanged, the police, facing a rain of bullets, ran one fugitive up an elevated railway stairway and captured him after a desperate hand-to-hand encounter. The second man bolted into a tenement house and disappeared.

The burglars showed fight from the start, when found by Zerrando Di Angles, proprietor of a 1st avenue cafe, drilling holes in a safe in which Di Angles for the last month has kept from $6,000 to $7,000 belonging to Italian societies. As they dashed out of the place they opened fire. Di Angles, though the bullets whistled close to him, was not injured, and yelled for the police. Three officers responded, and the chase through the streets with a running exchange of shots continued for several blocks.

Policeman Albiner finally cornered a man who gave his name as Frank Picciotti. He was captured on the stairs of the elevated railway station. Picciotti was taken to the police station and charged with the burglary. He denied being a professional burglar and said he did not know the name of the man who escaped.

PRESIDENT BEGINS VACATION.

Not an Entry on His Engagement Book for Ten Days.

BEVERLY, Mass., July 6.—With not a single entry in his engagement book for the next ten days, President Taft began a real vacation period today. The executive officers have turned down all requests for audiences with the chief executive and the only callers allowed on the grounds of the White House are the friends of the Taft family.

The President will go over his more important mail for an hour each afternoon. The remainder of the day will be his to do as he pleases. The President's summer schedule has about narrowed itself down to golf in the morning and sailing on the Sylph in the afternoon. The sailing parties on the Sylph always include a number of friends and tea is served on the canopied quarterdeck.

Aeroplane Falls 100 Feet When Engine "Goes Dead."

PITTSBURGH, Kan., July 6.—Arch Hoxsey, in a Wright biplane, dived almost straight downward from a height of 100 feet here yesterday after his engine had gone dead. The machine was demolished, but Hoxsey crawled from a mass of planes, wires and stays unhurt.

Hoxsey was soaring along evenly at a height of 300 feet when his motor stalled. Hoxsey tilted his planes and floated down gently to about 100 feet of the ground. When one of the plane's struts broke, the aeroplane nose dropped and the machine crashed to earth.

WATER PLAYED ON HERO WHO ENTERS STILL AFIRE

Superintendent Scorched in Turning Off Valve That Prevents Spread of Flames.

PITTSBURGH, July 6.—While a fire company poured powerful streams of water on him, W. A. Weaver, superintendent of the Atlantic Refining Company, dashed daringly through flames and smoke early today and shut a valve which prevented fire spreading from a burning still of benzine to great tanks of oil nearby.

In the vicinity over 30,000 barrels of petroleum in various stages of refinement were stored.

Two thousand people, called from their beds by the peril, cheered the superintendent as he came scorched from the burning still. What likely would have been a catastrophe similar to that at Sheridan several years ago, when 200 people were seriously injured in a gasoline explosion, was prevented, and the loss confined to the benzine still.

TREES Felled ACROSS TRACKS.

Camp Guest Averts Wreck of Raquette Lake Train.

UTICA, N. Y., July 6.—In an attempt to wreck the Raquette Lake train on the Mohawk and Malone railroad yesterday two trees were felled across the track at a point near Becker's camp, on Fourth lake.

They were put beyond a sharp curve, where it would have been impossible for the engineer to see them in time to check the train. The trees were felled by a man who gave his name as Frank Picciotti. He was captured on the stairs of the elevated railway station. Picciotti was taken to the police station and charged with the burglary. He denied being a professional burglar and said he did not know the name of the man who escaped.

NOTABLES AT FUNERAL

SERVICES HELD FOR CHIEF JUSTICE FULLER AT SORRENTO.

Episcopal Ritual Used—Gov. Hughes to Accompany Body to Chicago.

SORRENTO, Me., July 6.—In the Episcopal Church of the Redeemer, a little chapel surrounded by evergreen trees, and only a short distance from Mainstay, where the venerable jurist had passed a many quiet and pleasant summers, was held, this afternoon, the funeral of the late Melville Weston Fuller, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States.

The church was thronged with relatives, men of national prominence and summer residents of Sorrento, Bar Harbor and neighboring resorts.

The body of the Chief Justice, in a black casket almost covered with ferns and flowers, rested in front of the altar and was surrounded by floral tributes from relatives and friends, including a beautiful piece from President Taft, who found it impossible to be present.

Favorite Hymns Sung.

According to the wishes of the late Chief Justice, the funeral service of the Episcopal Church was read by Rev. James E. Freeman of Minneapolis, who is in charge of the Church of the Redeemer and is a close friend of the deceased family.

A quartet from Bar Harbor sang "Lead, Kindly Light," "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and "Peace, Perfect Peace," favorite hymns of Justice Fuller.

The pallbearers were Gov. Hughes of New York, Associate Justices Oliver Wendell Holmes and Joseph McKenna of the United States Supreme Court, United States Senators Eugene Hale, Gen. Thomas H. Hubbard of New York and Nathaniel L. Francis of Washington, a son-in-law.

With the exception of Mrs. Francis, none of the five daughters was able to be present at the service here. In addition to Mr. and Mrs. Francis, Mrs. Paulina Smith and Dixon Weston of Boston, cousins of the late Chief Justice, and Miss Miriam Fuller of Chicago, a granddaughter, were present.

Gov. Hughes will go to Chicago with the funeral party, accompanying the body, where services will be held Friday.

BAR CORPORATION GIFTS.

Decision of Managers of Republican Campaign in Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 6.—The finance committee of the republican state committee at its first campaign meeting has decided not to accept contributions to the republican campaign fund from corporations.

"We realize," said State Chairman Lee, "that the question of funds is a serious one. We do not expect to raise a large fund. In fact, we do not believe it will take a large amount of money to run the campaign."

The state committee this year started even, and it hopes, by bare-legged and shivering economy, to break even at the end.

FOR TAFT, AGAINST CANNON.

ALDRICH ALSO SCORPED BY SOUTH DAKOTA REPUBLICANS.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., July 6.—The republican state convention, in the section of the platform adopted early today with reference to the present administration, gave President Taft much heartier endorsement than was anticipated by many.

The President was commended for his declaration of loyalty to what are known as the Roosevelt policies. His administration was indorsed as having ready many sublime measures of reform into the statutes.

The convention, in all reference to the Cannon and Aldrich policies, declared against them in strong language.

BLACK CLAIMS FRAUD.

Carries Fight Against Dalsell to Common Pleas Court.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 6.—Counsel for Dr. Robert J. Black, former mayor of McKeesport, Pa., who contests the republican renomination of Representative John Dalsell in the thirtieth district, today appeared in common pleas court from the refusal of county commissioners to recount the ballots.

He claimed, with other things, that fifteen precincts lying between the Youghiogheny and Monongahela rivers are in the second instead of the thirtieth district, and if the vote in these precincts were thrown out it would cut 538 from the Dalsell majority, which now stands at 197.

It also is claimed that fraud was committed in county votes in sixty-six precincts and that a recount would give Black a majority of 1,000. The injunction issued by Judge Cohen against a recount, on the ground that petitions charging fraud must be signed by ten voters in each precinct, also was attacked.

The court took the appeal under consideration.
